Tour Itinerary –

Day 1 – Weds 15th July In flight (L & D in flight)

Meet & greet at Auckland Airport. SQ286 departs Auckland at 2.10pm, arriving in Singapore at 9pm.

Hotel: Crowne Plaza Changi Airport

Day 2 – Thursday 16th July Singapore Air Force Museum & Battlebox (B, D in flight)

Our first stop today is The Air Force Museum, a physical embodiment of the history, heritage, and values of the Republic of Singapore Air Force. It creatively combines original artefacts with interactive media, fighter jets, missiles, and anti-aircraft systems. Then we'll visit The Battlebox, a historic underground World War II command center located beneath Fort Canning Hill. It is most famous as the site where the British made the fateful decision to surrender Singapore to Japanese forces on 15 February 1942. Today, it is a museum that immerses visitors in the tense atmosphere of wartime strategy and surrender.

Alternatively, you can explore Singapore at your leisure. There are plenty of options to choose from.

We will have time to spend at The Jewel Changi which is a nature-themed entertainment and retail complex linked to the airport. Its centrepiece is the world's tallest indoor waterfall, the Rain Vortex, that is surrounded by a terraced forest setting and quite stunning in the evening when lit up.

Our evening flight SQ322 departs at 11pm.

Overnight in flight

Day 3 – Friday 17th July Brooklands & Mercedes Benz World (B in flight, D)

On arrival at Heathrow we clear immigration, collect any guests joining in the arrivals hall and meet our coach. We will make one pick up from the Renaissance Hotel should any guests have an overnight stay pre-tour.

Our first stop is Weybridge where we explore the fantastic Brooklands Museum, birthplace of British aviation and motorsport, and the site of many engineering and technological achievements. Brooklands-based aircraft companies such as Bleriot, Hawker, Sopwith, Martinsyde, and Vickers were key players in the early years of aviation and were crucial to its early development. Also here is The London Bus Museum which houses a remarkable collection of around 35 buses and coaches, and the largest collection of working historic London buses in the world.

A 2-minute stroll away is Mercedes-Benz World, the ultimate showroom where you'll find yourself up close to an array of automotive icons past and present from the Gullwing and Patent Motor Wagen to modern-day supercars such as the SLS AMG. Early afternoon we head over to Abingdon and check into our hotel for some rest before our Welcome Dinner.

Hotel: Hilton Garden Inn, Abingdon-on-Thames

Day 4 – Saturday 18th July At Leisure in Abingdon or Air Tattoo Optional Day (B)

If you wish to have two days at the Royal International Air Tattoo, today is the optional day. RIAT is the world's largest and most prestigious military air show. Spectacular in the air and on the ground with a two-mile-long static display (served by a shuttle bus), it's a fantastic line-up of international displays and 7 hours of flying.

RIAT26 will have an operational theme of 'Fighter Meet' highlighting the aircraft used throughout the last century for air-to-air combat and hope to include examples of modern fighter aircraft used across the globe.

You can choose your entry ticket type – from General Admission up to the VIP enclosures. Attending both days gives you more time to fully explore all the trade stands, static displays and catch all the flying. Both Saturday and Sunday are full 7-hour flying displays with the majority of the same aircraft although there may be variations due to availability, serviceability and weather etc. Tickets will need pre-booking and are at your own cost for today. Our coach will be available for the trip.

If you prefer a more restful day to adjust to the time difference, you can stay in lovely Abingdon, explore the town, Abbey Gardens, walk the Thames riverbank or hire a boat, or check out the Loose Cannon Brewery.

Hotel: Hilton Garden Inn, Abingdon-on-Thames

Day 5 – Sunday 19th July Royal International Air Tattoo (B, L)

Today is our scheduled group day at RIAT. As well as enjoying the static displays and trade stands, we have the luxury of our Cotswold Club enclosure with its summer garden party atmosphere, including a tasty lunch, unlimited tea and coffee, and an afternoon treat. The enclosure is directly on the crowd line for a great view of the fantastic flying display and includes a standing photography area.

Hotel: Hilton Garden Inn, Abingdon-on-Thames

Day 6 – Monday 20th July Jet Age Aircraft Museum (B)

Jet Age Aircraft Museum is home to a number of aircraft which were designed and manufactured by the Gloster Aircraft Company covering the years 1920's through to 1960's, as well as aero models, open cockpits and books. We spend the morning learning about Gloucestershire's rich aviation heritage and then continue North to Stratford-upon-Avon, a market town with more than 800 years of history, for an afternoon at leisure. You can visit Shakespeare's Birthplace, take a canal boat tour, visit the Butterfly Farm or enjoy a town walking tour.

Hotel: Alveston Manor, Stratford upon Avon

Day 7 – Tuesday 21st July Vulcan XM655, British Motor Museum (B)

Our day begins at Wellesbourne Airfield as we drop in to see Vulcan XM655, one of the few in ground running condition and the only one with the most powerful of the engine variants (Bristol Olympus 301s). This was third from last of the Vulcan bombers produced for the Royal Air Force, being delivered in late 1964, and was part of the UK's nuclear deterrent force throughout the 1960s and 1970s. It is now owned by Wellesbourne Airfield and is looked after by 655 Maintenance and Preservation Society (655MaPS), a volunteer group of Vulcan enthusiasts.

Then it's on to one of the top car collections in the world The British Motor Museum, which has over 400 classic, vintage & veteran cars to explore from the collections of the British Motor Industry Heritage Trust and the Jaguar Heritage Trust. The Museum building is a spectacular piece of architecture with an art deco design, whilst the Collections Centre building is a modern contrast. Together they stand proudly in a beautifully landscaped setting of 65 acres, which rolls out onto the Warwickshire countryside.

As an alternative, you may wish to visit Warwick Castle, built in 1068. A visit here includes the Birds of Prey show and the castle dungeons. Our coach can include this in our route.

There are plenty of other options if you prefer to stay in Stratford, or you could hop on a train to Henley-in-Arden, one of the prettiest towns in England: a mile-long High Street of medieval, Tudor, Georgian and Victorian architecture including 150 historic buildings, shops, pubs and restaurants.

Hotel: Alveston Manor, Stratford upon Avon

Day 8 – Wednesday 22nd July Silverstone & Bletchley Park (B, D)

This morning, we step into the heart of British motor racing at Silverstone Museum, located at the iconic Silverstone Circuit where we explore immersive exhibits, legendary cars, and the stories of racing heroes that shaped history. Then it's on to Bletchley Park.

Once the top-secret home of the World War Two Codebreakers, Bletchley Park is now a vibrant heritage attraction. Immersive films, interactive displays, museum collections and faithfully recreated WW2 rooms will guide you on a journey to discover the past. Exhibitions, set within beautifully restored historic buildings, tell the story of this once top-secret operation. We find out more about the brilliant minds and complex machines that made this vital work possible and discover the global impact Bletchley Park had on the outcome of WW2.

Also onsite here is The National Museum of Computing, located in Block H of Bletchley Park but an independent museum. It houses the world's largest collection of functional historic computers and World War II machines, including Enigma, Lorenz, the working Turing-Welchman Bombe, the rebuilt Colossus (the world's first electronic computer), and the WITCH (the world's oldest working digital computer). This is optional, time permitting and at your own cost but it does complement the Bletchley Park Story. Dinner this evening will be at the hotel.

Hotel: Letchworth Hall, Letchworth Garden City

Day 9 – Thursday 23rd JulyMilitary Intelligence Museum & Aircraft Restoration Co.*(B)

Here we discover the history and development of British military intelligence from its early roots to modern-day operations. The exhibits provide fascinating insights into codebreaking, espionage, surveillance, and the people behind key intelligence efforts. The museum's artifacts, interactive displays, and detailed narratives offer a unique look at the often-hidden work that has shaped national security.

This afternoon we have a private tour of the Aircraft Restoration Co hangar where the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight Lancaster will be undergoing a major overhaul. ARCo is a specialist engineering company dedicated to the restoration, maintenance, and operation of historic military aircraft — especially WWII fighters and is widely regarded as one of the leading Warbird companies. With John Romain at the helm, they've completed some of the most ambitious, historically significant warbird restorations anywhere in the world including the Mk1 Bristol Blenheim.

Here at Duxford, you have the opportunity for a flight experience in one of the Aerial Collective aircraft – Spitfire, Hurricane, Mustang, Lysander or Blenheim. Register your interest early if you are keen to take to the skies over Duxford. If you prefer, you could stay in Letchworth for the day.

Hotel: Letchworth Hall, Letchworth Garden City

Day 10 – Friday 24th JulyDuxford Flying Day “The Americans”*(B)

Duxford will be the start of our three days of flying action with an event celebrating the strong historic ties between the U.S. and Britain. The flying displays feature iconic American aircraft, with impressive demonstrations that highlight their power, agility, and role in aviation history. Alongside the flying programme, the ground exhibitions and museum collections add rich context to the stories behind the aircraft and crews and showcase the enduring American influence on Duxford's aviation heritage. We have a full day exploring the impressive Imperial War Museum hangars with a couple of hours of flying to enjoy.

Hotel: Cambridge Belfry Hotel & Spa

Day 11 – Saturday 25th JulyShuttleworth Summer Airshow*(B)

Perfectly capturing the charm and heritage that Shuttleworth is known for, the Summer Airshow is a wonderful celebration of aviation set against the beautiful backdrop of Old Warden. The afternoon flying displays showcase a mix of vintage aircraft, historic warbirds, and graceful aerobatic performances, all brought to life with Shuttleworth's signature close-up flying style and with their own collection at the core of the displays, we are sure to see some unique aircraft. Weather permitting there will be an early evening display which puts a new light on the flying just ahead of sunset.

Behind the six hangars, is a picturesque Regency style Swiss Garden, with 13 listed structures and intriguing vistas in 9-acre grounds, and a woodland walk and sculpture trail leading to the mansion house that was the Shuttleworth family home. The relaxed atmosphere, classic vehicles, and scenic surroundings make for an enjoyable and memorable day.

Hotel: Cambridge Belfry Hotel & Spa

Day 12 – Sunday 26th JulyOld Buckenham Airshow*(B, L)

We are very privileged today to be attending the Old Buckenham Airshow as guests of the Sally B enclosure. This area is by invitation only and tickets are not available to purchase. The theme of the show is “MH434” celebrating one of the most famous Spitfires of all time and her legendary Kiwi pilot Ray Hanna, former Red Arrows leader and founder of the Old Flying Machine Company. Ray is remembered for his stunning Spitfire displays, precise low-flying, and embodying the spirit of daring vintage aviation with his many stunts. We are honoured to have been invited to share this exclusive “money can't buy” experience and help celebrate MH434, The Old Flying Machine Company, and Ray Hanna.

Set in the Norfolk countryside, the air show combines impressive flying displays with a vibrant festival atmosphere and a diverse international lineup of aircraft from classic warbirds to modern aerobatic performers. Boeing B-17G Flying Fortress ‘Sally-B’ is the regular centrepiece for the show and, along with MH434, will be the backdrop for our full-service catered lunch and a truly unique and unforgettable experience.

We will explore the Peace Gardens, Walls of Names and the Spire with a guide, and then have some time in the Chadwick Centre which uses state-of-the-art technology and interactive displays to tell the story of Bomber Command, through the eyes of those who witnessed events first-hand.
